The Archangel Michael said, "There is nothing here to fear."

And Lucifer replied, "Well, there's always the truth."

LUCIFER RISING

Available: Feature Screenplay.

Logline: A hardened Detective teams with Archangel Michael to protect his gifted Daughter from Lucifer, only to discover the sardonic Fallen Angel may have benevolent intentions after all.

Story: NYPD Detective Joshua undertakes a manhunt to retrieve his kidnapped daughter Lily from seemingly nefarious Lucifer. However, when the “Prince of Darkness” reveals that Lily is the sole remaining Nephilim child, an angelic-human hybrid created to protect the Earth from malicious Demons, Joshua must choose between releasing her or – in an ironic twist of fate – join with the Devil himself to combat a greater evil.

Coverage: “LUCIFER RISING is a well-structured, deeply-characterized, and highly-innovative take on a ‘detective story’ exploiting the suspense of a psychological thriller with the scares of a horror film. The film is a fresh mix of Constantine and X-Men, with the intelligence and twists of Da Vinci Code. The controversial and frightening climax will leave every audience member deeply affected emotionally, intellectually, and – most of all – spiritually. LUCIFER RISING is a tent-pole supernatural thriller with roles for stars, fantastic action-packed set-pieces, and boasts unlimited franchise potential.”

Writer: Lawrence Riggins has won the Samuel Goldwyn, STARZ, Writers Digest, Jack Nicholson, and StoryPros awards. Email: dupin1809@hotmail.com
