Genetic-engineering
for law enforcement

PROJECT JANUS

"I'm only two days old and I had a nightmare."

Logline: Project Janus is a secret private law-enforcement unit elevating criminal profiling to new heights by cloning active felons, fugitives, missing persons, victims, and uncooperative witnesses linked to capital crimes.

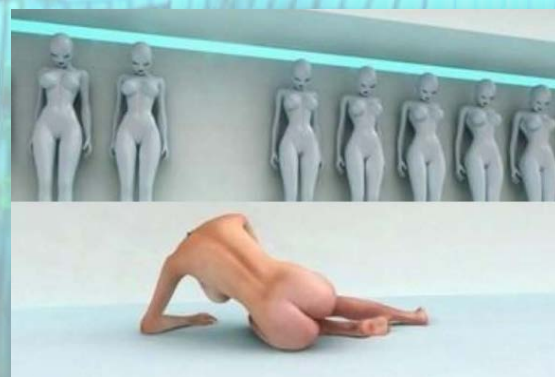

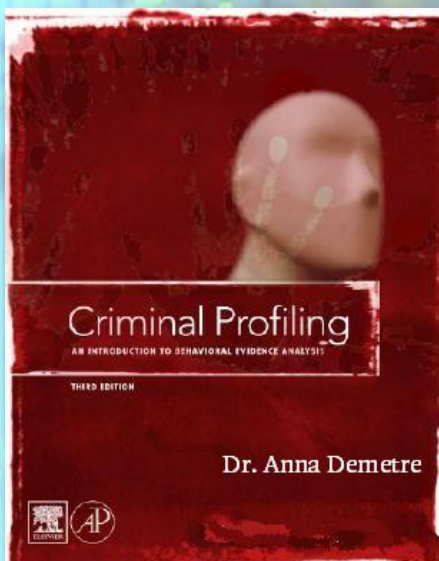

Type: Episodic-Serial Television Series for Cable or Network.

Genre: Thriller / Crime / Sci-Fi.

Audience: Mainstream police procedural, female lead, science-fiction elements.

Available: Detailed 46-page illustrated TV Bible, female lead, pilot treatment, character biographies, and three seasons.

Synopsis: Each controversial episode pairs psychiatrist-mother-cop ANNA DEMETRE with a newly-formed Clone to exploit its genetic memory and telepathy to apprehend perpetrators, save lives of intended victims, close cold cases, infiltrate criminal organizations, and even act with vigilante justice. Team Janus includes billionaire biologist Clausen Enki, one-man SWAT team Sgt. Orion, and Surrogate – a biological super computer – who decides the clones are her “children” and demands to be called Mother.

Writer Lawrence Riggins has won the STARZ, Samuel Goldwyn, Writers Digest, Jack Nicholson, and StoryPros awards.
